

THE NEWS OF NORFOLK ON PAGES TWO, THREE, FIVE AND SIX.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Mr. A. M. Agelasto, Jr., has returned from Europe.

An immense turtle, said to have weighed 150 pounds, was found on the beach at Ocean View yesterday morning. It had been dead some time, and drifted in with the tide, and although somewhat decayed, it excited considerable interest.

The Richmond Times of Sunday publishes a likeness of Rev. W. J. Young, D. D., of this city, as part of an article on the proposed Methodist Orphanage.

Mr. F. Wade Vaughan, of Atlanta, Ga., will speak at the Union Mission this evening at 8 o'clock. All welcome.

The members of the Needle Work Guild of the Norfolk Protestant Hospital will meet at the residence of Mrs. J. L. Koper, on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Changes have just been made in the outer waiting room at the Ocean View depot at Norfolk. The exit to the train is now near the door from the main waiting room.

Miss Mary Magee, one of Norfolk's sweet singers, is in Washington visiting her brother, Dr. D. Arcey Magee, of that city.

Mr. C. H. Clarke, of Richmond, is at the Monticello.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCabe and son, and Mrs. E. W. Toms, of Durham, N. C., are in the city.

Miss Hulst Glenn and her young wife, formerly Miss Gertrude Marie Casey, of Norfolk, are at the Atlantic. They will go to Staunton, their home, after spending the remainder of their honeymoon at Mr. Glenn's old home.

Dr. Thomas H. Barnes, of Nansemond county, is in the city.

Mr. H. H. George, Jr., and Mr. A. Wright, of Richmond, are here.

Mr. Frank Fletcher, of Accomac, is registered at the Atlantic.

Mr. Robert Eames, at chemical engine house No. 1, has just completed another row boat.

Professor S. T. Moreland, principal of the McDonough school, near Norfolk, with his daughter, Miss Elizabeth, and his son, Edward, are the guests of his brother-in-law, Rev. C. D. Gilkeson, of Lambert's Point.

Dr. W. W. Smith, chancellor of the Randolph-Macon system of education, was in the city Sunday, but left in the evening for Richmond.

The twentieth annual meet of the League of American Wheelmen will be held at Boston, August 14th to 19th. One fare for the round trip is offered to A. W. members, and a 50-cent club is being organized here to attend.

A trolley on one of the Ocean View cars broke from its fastenings yesterday afternoon, tying up both sections of the 6 o'clock train, so that it did not reach Norfolk until 6:40, exactly twenty minutes behind schedule time.

Lieutenant J. H. Rohrbacher, detached from the Ordnance Department and ordered to the Independence, via the Norfolk navy yard, for duty in connection with the crew of the Hartford.

Mr. James Wiley, of Winston-Salem, N. C., is in the city with Messrs. R. L. Dalton and Robert Idol, on Freeman street.

The names of Messrs. A. F. Koerner and Charles Borjes are so well known that it is unnecessary to say that the moonlight excursion and concert will be conducted on a grand scale. They have the assistance of eight of the best singers in this city, and everybody should go who wishes to enjoy a pleasant evening Monday next.

A large number of Richmond people came to Norfolk on the excursion from that city Sunday. They took in Virginia Beach and Ocean View.

A scaffold at the new stables now being built on Cove street fell yesterday afternoon, precipitating four men, who were at work on it, to the ground. Neither of them were hurt, but work on the building was delayed about thirty minutes.

Messrs. J. E. Britton & Co. received yesterday a cargo of Florida melons, ranging in weight from 40 to 50 pounds each. They sold readily at $30 per hundred.

Mr. A. Zepf conducted the services at the Union Mission, on Lower Church street, last night.

Mr. R. D. Williamson has been appointed deputy great sachem for the hunting ground of Norfolk by Great Sachem George A. Tabb, of the Improved Order of Red Men. His duties are to officially visit tribes 42, 57, 77, 79, 87, 99 and 100.

Sunshine Circle of the King's Daughters meet this afternoon at 5 o'clock with Mrs. Chapman, 200 Brewer street. Business of importance will be transacted.

Mr. F. S. Royster left yesterday for Staunton via Chesapeake and Ohio, to be absent for a day or two.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Myers leave for Buena Vista, Va., on the Chesapeake and Ohio this morning.

Miss Daisy Bogardus, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is a guest of her uncle, Dr. A. Week, at the residence of F. H. Gale, 304 W. 10th street.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Dr. A. Week and Miss Blanche Winston, on the 27th instant.

Mr. J. Burks Carper, of this city, is one of the lessees and managers of Hotel Chetwood, at Atlantic City.

A large number of people from Lynchburg came to Norfolk Sunday on an excursion.

BRIGHT YOUNG MAN.

SCHOLASTIC HONORS WON BY MR. T. P. CROSS, OF NORFOLK.

Mr. T. P. Cross has recently returned to his home in Norfolk, bringing with him his freshly won honors from Hampden-Sidney College. He not only graduated first in his class and received the honor of being appointed valedictorian for '99, but besides the honors conferred upon him directly by the faculty he has received the honors of being local editor for the Hampden-Sidney Magazine, Historian of the Class of '99, and Final Senior Orator for the Union Literary Society. He will return to Hampden-Sidney College next year to fill the sub-professor's chair of English and Mathematics in that institution and take a post graduate course.

When we consider the fact that his A. B. diploma and other honors were won by Mr. Cross in two years, although he completed with men of four years standing, the accomplishment of so much is alike honorable and surprising. The Norfolk Academy may well be proud of the record of her "boys" in the various colleges and universities of the State.

Hampden-Sidney College, which has in years gone by, sent out from its walls men whose names now stand high on the scroll of fame, is yearly widening its influence and curriculum, and it is hoped that now that the public are becoming alive to the excellence of the training given at this time-honored institution, the number of students may steadily increase from year to year.

Mr. Cross was accompanied on his return home by Mr. W. C. Wanhope, another student of Hampden-Sidney College, who has the honor of being one of three to be distinguished on all the courses pursued by them in the junior class during the past half-session. Mr. Wanhope is considered one of the brightest men who attend the college, and will undoubtedly make his mark in the world.
